

The Causal Body

The Causal Body is located approximately 6" above your crown and it relates to the amount of Light you have accumulated from every incarnation you have ever had.

For instance, everything you say or do with intent creates Light or Darkness, so if you are always coming from your heart centre with Love and Compassion then you create more Light that is held within the Causal Body, this will eventually be added to the Love and Light held within the Ascension Flame in Luxor Egypt.

The overseer is Serapis Bey Chohan of the Ray of Purity and Discipline and Guardian of the Ascension Flame in Luxor.

How wonderful to know that living a positive and loving life on this planet will allow you to add Light to the Ascension Flame, therefore helping humanity to have a change in consciousness for their highest good and that of the planet; in turn it will raise your spiritual vibration and help with your own Ascension process. But if you continue to hold on to negative energy, are judgemental and not from a loving heart then the vibration in your Causal Body will dim, therefore it will be hard for the Light to shine forth and your own Ascension process will be held back.

So, you can see how important the Causal body is for every human on this planet. Paperwork is available if you wish to know more. 'What does the Ascension Flame consist of?'
