

What does the Ascension Flame consist of?

We speak daily of Ascension and the Ascension Flame; we know what is required to ascend. We also have an understanding of the amount of years and incarnations we have to go through to reach the level of ascension, but what does this Flame consist of. I will try to explain without getting involved or too heavy with information.

The Ascension Flame is composed of many different magnetic powers that originally came from God/Source and was offered to many beings that travelled to planet Earth over many centuries, bringing forward the Love and Light from God/Source. It is a power that represents the original breath of God containing all the Love, Compassion, Hope, Trust, Integrity, Kindness and Truth of the 'Oneness' that is our natural essence.

This Light, as it grew created a spiritual ladder for all to climb, without any judgement. It was composed of ascending energies that came from Prayers, Meditations, Affirmations, Invocations, Decrees and Aspirations from every human or Higher Being of Light. As we know, we create our reality with every thought we have, everything we say and do but with love, compassion and kindness from the heart centre; this all helps to create this beautiful Ascension Flame.

This vibration/energy is gathered up by the Brothers and Sisters of the Ascension Temple and has been since the beginning of life on this planet. All that comes from deep within with integrity and compassion, this Light never fades it accumulates and very early on during the Egyptian times, this energy was held and taken by the Brothers and Sisters to the Temple of Luxor in Egypt. Serapis Bey, who was a Priest at this time was given the opportunity to protect and carry this Flame to its given destination, and where it still remains to this day.

It also holds the Light and Love from Atlantis and the energy taken from each individual at that time, nothing was ever lost, for once the energy/vibration is created from all of the Prayers, Meditations and all I have mentioned before, it becomes so powerful and being filled with so much Love and Light, which is the God essence, it will never be extinguished in fact, it just gets stronger and stronger with each passing century.

Serapis Bey and his followers will always monitor this Ascension Flame as they are the Guardians of this precious Light from God/Source. Remember, your Causal body holds this Light during all of your incarnations and at the appropriate time, in between incarnations an aspect of this Light we hold will be added to the Light at Luxor. How amazing that in this 21st century we still have an amazing gift of gathering this Light to help future generations. When people say; 'what is the meaning of life'? This is but one answer and truly precious.

You can at any time ask to be taken to Luxor whilst you sleep or during your waking day, to have your own levels of ascension balanced and if appropriate, you can ask to be shown how to climb this ladder of ascension for the highest good of your service work and your mission here on Earth. Maybe it is time to begin a more in-depth communication with the Master Serapis Bey, Chohan of the Ray of Purity and Discipline.
