

Lord Metatron's Message to you all. Channelled by Carol A Stacey

I come to you now as I feel your fears and concerns for the future of this planet and that of humanity. The information I offer you will either resonate within or not – it is your choice what you allow into your heart and mind. I will offer guidance and understanding as I try to connect with your I Am Presence, for it is this aspect of your higher mind that will allow this information to be absorbed.

First I wish to explain the Christ Consciousness, it is an expansion of the heart centre for every human on this planet and to absorb the Christ essence; this means, when you as individuals are ready and you 'feel' in your heart the Love flowing through on a daily basis without the thoughts of judgement, and negativity, then you are ready to accept the Light Codes that are being offered at this most challenging time in humanities existence.

Light Codes are packets of information that are programmed into the 3 minds and 4 body system, offering all on your spiritual journey an amazing influx of Light, helping with your individual ascension process. It will expand the Ajna centre (3rd eye) and your truth will be felt within the solar plexus very deeply. A feeling of inner peace and joy combined with pure unconditional love for all life.

Your I Am Presence has been guiding you so gently but now is the time of acceleration and preparation for a major transition, from the old ways of thinking and being; letting go of all karma, as majority of your karma has been dealt with during this incarnation. You have expanded your level of understanding with regards to spirituality and what this really means. Not a specific religion, but a recognition of your true essence. A 'knowing' deep inside that you are more than your physical body, you are the vibration, an aspect of all the stars, planets, seas, mountains, trees, plants, animals and everything that has form within this universe and beyond. For all life is from one universal life force energy – there is no separation. (Beautifully acknowledged within your Rahanni healing) There is of course so much more but I am just touching on the basics here to help you understand a little more of the amazing gift life is.

So, let me move on as I try to answer a question that I know has created a lot of curiosity within many hearts and minds; that of the 3 World Split. There will be those of you that cannot resonate with this information at this time, that is fine, just let it go for now, but you will, as you progress begin to understand the wisdom of what is being offered today.

As life continues on this planet there will be a massive change in how humanity connects, works together and shares life here.

There will be groups, not that you will notice a group situation, we of the Spiritual Hierarchy will be more aware of these splits within society, but in a progressive way, not in a threatening way. You will carry on with life in a way that resonates with your heart centre and this creates the first group within society that is kind, caring compassionate, joyful, without judgement of anyone else. This 'group' is part of the New Age, the people that have had a wonderful shift in consciousness and understand the bigger picture about life and why individual souls wanted to be here on this planet at this momentous time in humanities development. This group at soul level are 'open' to receiving and acknowledging their natural essence and are happy to accept the 'Light Codes' to progress on their journey of discovery. This group will lead by example and will be happy to share their Love and Light with every human at the appropriate time. They are the new leaders of society and will help to create a New Earth where the Light over-rides darkness. This group will have the ability to channel and communicate with the Higher Beings of Love and Light, sharing their knowledge to all that are ready and open to receive the information. People within companies that have an abundance of money or assets of any kind, will be willing to share and help those in need. There will be balance within your society. I am not saying it will happen overnight, but this is your future on this most amazing planet.

Then we have the 2nd group of the World Split; these are the humans that are torn between their old ways of being and feeling, to the new way of seeing life now with eyes wide open since the massive shift in consciousness in 2020 and beyond. They still hold on to some of the old ways of judgement and ego, still more concerned about their well-being rather than others. They have days where their spiritual side rises up and they can see with clearer eyes, but then they revert back to a few of the older outdated modes of expression and 'being'. They are in conflict with themselves and the majority will eventually cross that bridge as they awaken to the pull of their heart centre and they will eventually join those that are already on a higher vibration and living a life of joy.

Now we move on to the 3rd group, those of a darker vibration, that need to control, have power, greed and are judgemental of others, and show very little, if any compassion for their fellow man or animals. It is all about them with no thought of how they hurt and create suffering for others. You may ask, why are they allowed to remain here on Earth, now we are in the New Age? We of the Spiritual Hierarchy never give up on a lost soul, for this is what they are. Every soul deserves to be helped or shown how they can, whilst on this planet, recognise the error of their ways and will be given the opportunity to review their life and turn it around. They will be given 3 chances to make these adjustments from negative to positive and to continue with a life here on this 'New Earth'. If after 3 chances they do not attempt to change, then they will be taken from this 'New Earth' to a planet that is a replica of the 'Old Earth' to finish out their life in a way that is suitable for them, but there will always be opportunities for them to grow and for their soul to be healed; as not all souls are perfect. (Another story)

So let me continue with the positive aspects of your life here on this 'New Earth' Those of you that are ready to progress with your spiritual development will, at the appropriate time for each individual receive a Light Shower on a number of occasions during this time of transition. Lord Melchizedek and myself, Lord Metatron will begin to anchor these Codes of Light during your sleep time, as you are more relaxed rather than during your waking time. First they could energise your physical body for a few days, then maybe you will feel so tired not able to concentrate, have a feeling of being here and not being here, a little light headed, dry mouth a few aches with muscular pains, weird dreams that make no sense and many other little peculiarities that you have no answer for. Please do not worry, this is all part of the transition and acceptance of the Light shower and Light Packets that is being offered to all of you at this most challenging time. Of course, if you feel so unwell, then do call your local Doctor to be checked out for your own peace of mind.

Other positive traits will be an expansion of your aura by quite a degree as the new downloads you are absorbing will be settling within your 3rd eye, heart centre and solar plexus, this creates the expansion of the aura that will allow you to touch the hearts of humanity just by being in their company, as you converse with them either within families, friends, in the work place, wherever you come into contact with another soul – you can make a difference in the most positive way. Their soul will absorb all of the Light you are willing to share for their benefit and you don't even have to be aware of what is going on. It is beautifully done!

So let me recap on some of the points mentioned:

You are as a planet going through a major cleansing and each individual during this most challenging time will receive a wake-up call and be offered, at a higher level of understanding, the opportunity to make changes in your life, and all positive changes will be helped with our vibration of Love and Light, we will work alongside of you for as long as your soul feels it is necessary. Full Support for as long as you feel you require our assistance will always be available.

I must just mention a very emotional and difficult situation that you are all going through at this most delicate time. It is that of loss of a family member, a child and an understanding of the mass loss of life here. You feel angry, a sadness in your hearts and not sure how you can carry on. Please let me take your hand and explain in a loving way what has happened.

These dear sweet souls that have passed, or gone home, decided at soul level to be here at this momentous occasion and had been made aware before they incarnated that they had the chance of helping humanity have a better quality of life and saving this planet by releasing all negativity, fear, power and control, allowing humanity to have a massive wake-up call to make changes to each individual life. It could only be accomplished by a massive clearing and cleansing of this planet. These beautiful souls were shown before they incarnated how important this next journey would be and it was up to each individual soul to make the decision to incarnate, knowing how they would help to save this planet in so many ways. These souls in their thousands agreed to this incarnation, for they could see, that every person on Earth, would feel the restrictions of what they called 'normal' life and the pressure and fear it would create, so they knew it was the only way Earth could be saved. Feeling isolated humanity would have a change in their thought patterns, they would feel more love and compassion in their hearts as each day passes. Each individual person would begin to take responsibility to be kind, caring, compassionate, as the situation would be so bad that people would have to work together and have a change in consciousness so this planet could survive.

Releasing the ego is paramount for survival on this planet. This is a way forward to Christ Consciousness; every soul will now understand this. A positive outcome on this planet will create positive ripples through out the universes, therefore creating harmony in the hearts and minds of all life.

I know this message will possibly be difficult for some of you to absorb and understand, but please, all I ask is that you open your hearts and minds to the possibilities that's available for each and every one of you as you come out of the darkness into the Light and know in your heart you can make a difference to this world in the most positive way.

My Blessings and Love to each one of you. Thank you for taking the time to read this most important message.

I thank my channel Carol for offering to absorb my words and vibration, allowing me to reach out to you at this most challenging time.

NAMASTE!
