

Dr. Lorphan & the Galactic Healers of Sirius

I am Dr. Lorphan Director of the Healing Academy of Sirius. I am here tonight with my channel to offer answers to some of your questions that have been upper-most in your mind of late. We of the Hierarchy, are a vast collective of Angels, Archangels, Ascended Masters and many more who serve God and every living being. We are at this moment feeling your fears and concern for your future for yourself, your family and all life on planet Earth. We are channelling tonight messages of hope and love, for we can see and feel the pain and suffering you are all holding within your 3 minds and 4 bodies. We wish to eliminate this for you and to help you understand why all of the challenges you are experiencing are happening and what you can do to change the many negative vibrations surrounding not only your planet, but within your minds and bodies.

I want to take you back over 2000 years or more to a time on this planet of uncertainty, fear, and judgement. At this time, this planet was dominated by a masculine vibration of power and control. The female of the species had no voice, they were, to put it bluntly, used and abused, treated as second class citizens. This carried on for many, many years. Even during your Victorian era the female had little chance, to voice an opinion, and this way of living and being for thousands of years has created an imbalance within society and grounded too much of the masculine vibration here on Earth.

Every aspect of life requires balance of negative and positive, for you cannot have too much of one polarity, this creates disharmony, not just for humanity but for the planet.

As time has progressed and moved on, the negative vibrations from way back and even to some extent even now, has taken its toll where you have seen and felt the impact of greed, power, control and lack of integrity and Love. It is too much for a planet to endure time and time again, a world full of masculine energy and a lack of the feminine vibration that is so needed to keep planet Earth in balance; the Yin and Yang.

You are now seeing and feeling the results of humanities inhumanity to man from centuries ago and the destruction of so many aspects of life here on Earth. So many changes are required to get the balance flowing again, and those of you that are of a spiritual understanding, feel and know this within your heart centres, you have felt the sadness, pain and suffering and you know your voice needs to be heard; it is now being recognised. At last so many of you living on this planet came into incarnation to help make a difference to this world, with your healing, love, kindness, compassion, integrity and joy; all aspects of the feminine vibration. This will of course bring about balance, for there will always be the need for the masculine energy but at a different level and perspective. The masculine will bring inner strength, logic and reason but will sit comfortably along-side the feminine.

Now, I have spoken of the past and what it has created, let me now explain about your future and where planet Earth is heading. This message isn't written in stone as it is still up to humanity to build and create the future that offers both masculine and feminine vibrations to work together creating a wonderful environment and life for the 'New Age' children that have been arriving on your planet for the past few years. They are known as the Holy Innocents, children that have taken on form and incarnated for the very first time on planet Earth. They have been encoded with unique consciousness codes from their I Am Presence and this will be brought into awareness at the appropriate time for each individual child. These beautiful souls know the need for Love, Compassion, Kindness and Integrity, for they have it in abundance. They may have difficulty adjusting to the heavier energies on this Earth and it could have an effect on their digestive systems, where it will take a while for them to find the food that sits comfortable with their higher consciousness. So many may prefer to be vegetarian or vegan, but they would normally choose a parent that would understand the need for the type of food that sits comfortable within, helping to live their life here on Earth. Please don't judge them or force them to eat the same meals as you. It has to be their choice and they will be guided by us to help keep them balanced as they make this amazing journey of discovery for the very first time.

So what difference will these Holy Innocents make to life here on Earth?

First they will be happier individuals, calmer but will have a great respect for the older generation, for they know what this group have been through in the past and how they survived. The connection to the older people within your own family will make you smile, for the interaction of the old and the new ways of being will help them to understand how they proceed and move forward with this new life and what they are here to do. They will be connected to the nature spirits, flora and fauna, the whales, dolphins and all the sea creatures. This will be their joy to be in this environment. They will also, as they get older move towards healing and natural products and essences for they also know about the benefit of majority of plants here on Earth. They will want to speak out loud to those that have created too many negative situations on Earth as they recognise why this planet is suffering as it is right now. They will have the knowledge to share with all of humanity how to create Heaven on Earth and this is their aim.

Looking forward 50 years or so this planet will be immensely different from what you see now, for the Holy Innocents will help to bring about a change to a planet that was heading for disaster. Their arrival here was not by chance, it was the will of the Spiritual Hierarchy and all Higher Beings of Light and Love to offer this planet one last opportunity for humanity to change their way of thinking and being from that of negativity, fear and anger to that of positive thought love, compassion, kindness and integrity, offering help showing people the way of understanding without judgement and offering love to your fellow man.

Just a mention of your healing modality known as Rahanni Celestial Healing. Those of you attuned to this beautiful 5th dimensional healing vibration, will be a massive help to these Holy Innocents for their soul and the Love they hold in their heart resonates with your Rahanni vibration, that of Truth Love and Compassion.

So please be aware of the difference you have made already by becoming attuned to this healing modality and understand the difference you are making to people's lives as you offer Rahanni healing from your heart to your client's hearts.

I will take my leave of you now, but please, reach out to as many people as you can that are suffering or in fear at this moment in time; offer them hope for the future.

A cleansing is taking place on planet Earth right now to release and let go of thousands of years of pain, suffering negativity and fear, but trust me, you will get through this and bring the Light back to the most beautiful planet in this Universe.

Our Love and Light is always with you.

Many Blessings, I am Dr. Lorphan your Guide and Teacher from Sirius and beyond.
